

Thursday Morning

Dear Moms:

Just a quick few lines as Mr. B. will be in any minute.

Thanks for your letter saying you would just as soon have Harriet with us for the weekend. She is a nice girl and would love to come—it's a long weekend to spend in the city alone in such nice weather, and I would love to have her, too. However, she has to work Friday night, so won't come up with me. She will come up on the 12:30 Saturday noon train, getting in Holyoke at 4:15. She doesn't have to work Tuesday morning, so will go back with me early that day. She is very worried that you will go to extra work for her, so don't do anything you wouldn't do if she weren't coming. She wanted to bring up a cake, but that would be hard to carry, so I vetoed it. We can get one at Howes. I'm sending you now 30 red points and we'll both bring our books home, so if you market Friday and need more, say I will pay them more red points on Saturday. I can't send you a check, but we get paid today, so I will bring plenty of money with me. Save the marketing until Saturday, if you want to—perhaps ordering on Friday?

Don't know what we'll do with the baby—bring him, perhaps! (Not really, tho.) She fell out of the window Saturday to the hard pavement below, but didn't get hurt!

It is warm again today—guess we'll have a warm weekend, but hope it won't be too hot.

Will take the 6:10 on Friday, dear, and see you the usual time. If you'd rather have me take the bus home, don't come to the station and I'll do it that way. So if I don't see you there, I'll take the bus.

There is no news, and I'll see you tomorrow night, anyway, so will say good-by for now.

All my love,

Susan
